A Message from Pastor Chip

LENT: Do No Harm; Do Good; And Focus on Your Heart

"In the latter end of the year 1739 eight or ten persons came to Mr. Wesley, in London, who appeared to be deeply convinced of sin, and earnestly groaning for redemption. They desired, as did two or three more the next day, that he would spend some time with them in prayer, and advise them how to flee from the wrath to come, which they saw continually hanging over their heads."

And so, for those who like things spelled out and enumerated, Mr. Wesley produced "The General Rules of the United Societies":

"It is therefore expected of all who continue therein that they should continue to evidence their desire of salvation:

"First: By doing no harm, by avoiding evil of every kind, especially that which is most generally practiced."

This prohibition is followed by a good list of those practices which were to be avoided. Some have stood the test of time, and others are best understood within the historical context. Most of us have a good sense of right and wrong, and might benefit from a review of our personal transgressions, from which conviction, repentance and grace have delivered us. And, be open to the possibility that we are not yet a finished product!

"Secondly: By doing good; by being in every kind merciful after their power; as they have opportunity, doing good of every possible sort, and, as far as possible, to all men."

Again, Mr. Wesley followed with a reasonable list of "good of every possible sort," consisting of communal and individual behaviors that we now regard as "works of mercy". Mercy is key.

Here, it is beneficial to recall perhaps the most quoted of all Wesley quotes: "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can."

The bad news is that Mr. Wesley probably never said this one. Anyway, we have no record that he said it. But even as a misquote, it is just about as good as you can get, and it emphasizes the wholeness of heart with which we are to love our neighbor.

Read within the context of the General Rules, Luke's account of Jesus' teaching on doing no harm and doing good, bears repeating. Note that the Pharisee avoided lots of evil behavior, even expressing gratitude, and engaged in doing good regularly, fasting twice a week and giving a tenth, presumably of his gross earnings! Yet, Jesus teaches that behaviors - our doings and not doings - are not the full picture of who we are.

In the General Rules, Wesley continues:

"Thirdly: By attending upon all the ordinances of God; such are:

The public worship of God.

The ministry of the Word, either read or expounded.

The Supper of the Lord.

Family and private prayer.

Searching the Scriptures.

Fasting or abstinence."

Wesley concludes the Rules with this third admonition to attend upon all the ordinances of God. We might refer to these practices as "means of grace", and our attending upon them focuses our hearts not on our relations with others, but appropriately upon our relationship to God: worship, Word, Supper, prayer, Scriptures...

And, fasting and abstinence remain for United Methodists appropriate disciplines, particularly during the days of Lent. But be cautioned, attending upon the ordinances of God is not a competition sport, and succeeding is more a matter of one's heart than effort. A failing effort in fasting remains a means of grace!

Hear again the parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector. Only one was a successful practitioner; and only one went home justified before God.

Look inward, angels.

Ash Wednesday

February 18

On this special day of the Christian year, worshipers' foreheads are often marked with ashes in the sign of the cross. The ashes traditionally come from burning palm branches from the previous Palm Sunday.

In Old Testament days, ashes were a sign of mourning and repentance. Today, some worshipers wipe off the ashes before leaving church, to symbolize being cleansed from sin by Jesus' death. Others wear the ashes the rest of the day, carrying the cross of Christ into the world. The speaking of Genesis 3:19 often accompanies the placement of ashes: "You are dust, and to dust you shall return."

"Though our feelings come and go, God's love for us does not."

~ C.S. Lewis

Lenten Living

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and lasts 40 days. Christians have observed this season of the church year since the fourth century, as a time of reflection, penitence, and spiritual renewal before Easter.

During Lent, some Christians give up something that hinders their relationship with God. Others do something extra for their spiritual growth or make a special sacrifice. The key is to make Lent a memorable season of sincere spiritual growth — a time that can set the tone for the rest of the year.

~ From "The Newsletter Newsletter"

Prayer for the Season

Merciful God, You called us forth from the dust of the earth; You claimed us for Christ in the waters of baptism. Look upon us as we enter these Forty Days bearing the mark of ashes, and bless our journey through the desert of Lent to the font of rebirth.

May our fasting be hunger for justice; our alms, a making of peace;
our prayer, the chant of humble and grateful hearts.

It is in Your holy name that we pray. Amen

Thank you ~ Tim Lasley

Jesus replied:

*"Love the Lord your God
with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it:*

Love your neighbor as yourself."

Matthew 22:37-39

Flowers for Services

You can help beautify the sanctuary throughout the year with one of God's loveliest gifts: FLOWERS! The 2026 Flower Chart is in the narthex, ready to be filled.

Sign up now for your special Sundays!

Scouting for Food

Due to recent weather conditions, Scout Troop 919/Cub Pack 919 were unable to participate in bag drop-offs Saturday, February 7. Please don't let that stop your efforts to support our local community!

Their New Plan: Troop 919 will have Scouting for Food bags at Olivet Moravian and Brookstown UMC February 8. There will be drop-off points at both churches and at Wilson's Garage. You can fill the bags and bring them to church next Sunday or drop them off anytime at these locations. The food will be taken to the Lewisville Community Food Pantry (LCAP). Try to drop off by February 15.

Yours in Scouting,
Troop 919 and Cub Pack 919

United Women in Faith

The monthly meeting for our United Women in Faith will be Wednesday, February 18 at 11am in the Fellowship Hall. The program is titled "Connected in Our Roots", and will share some of the history of Black American mapmaking and the use of maps in the struggle for justice for Black Americans. We'll also consider where we might become more integrated in our communities and look at an alternative interpretation of the Tower of Babel.

All women are invited to join us and bring a favorite covered dish for a potluck meal together.

~ Martha Isenberg, UWF President

*God of love, as we share Valentines this month, remind us also to share practical expressions of Your love for all:
food, shelter, clean water, acceptance of differences, a helping hand.*

“What Do I Have?”

What do I have, Lord, that You would need me as a servant?

“Eyes,” He said,

“to see the beauty in all that I’ve made — and My children as they travel life’s highway.”

“Hands,” He said,

“to reach out and touch hurting souls, to give a hug or encouraging pat on the back.”

“Feet,” He said,

“to lead My children through this world of strife, and to help them run from sin and follow Me.”

“Mouth,” He said,

“to lift up your voice and sing praises to Me, so others may hear the joy in your heart.”

“Ears,” He said,

“to listen to My still, small voice of love, and to hear My children when they cry for help.”

“Heart,” He said,

“so you may know the full love of My Spirit, and love My children as I have loved you.”

~ Thomas Butler
